Modern photography reproduces the intense moment in the tragedy of "Medea" which instilled pity and terror into the Athenian audience of 2500 years ago. MAKE BIG CLEAN-UP.

Publicity, either in newspapers specialising in oil promotion or in direct-by-mail canvassing of 'sucker lists,' has enabled the stock-selling promoters to make amazing "clean-ups" at the expense of the credulous.

"Declarations of trust," which the promoters hold are legal under the common law are used by the oil men to enable courts er suits in the civil.

Claiming the right under these declarations to exclusive and complete control of the affairs of the syndicates they or ganize, the promoters often pocket 50 per cent or more of the proceeds from their stock-selling campaigns as "organization fees," pay themselves handsome salaries and meet his expense accounts to nothing in actual oil operations.
